From the Baron

Unto the populace of Cearthe, lend a ear and hear words of your baron.

Once again this past month was filled with much amazement! Lady Guernen has once again amazed me with her wonderful words, your words are magic to my ears. Thank you.

I must not forget about several other wonderful things that have happened in the past few months. At the Estrella war, Lord Grellan O'Conchbhair was admitted into the order of the Stag's blood. This was not forgotten by myself! But I had wished to wait and have his name read and shared along with his gracious lady, now Mistress Caelainn ingen Muiredaig who was made a companion of the order of the Laurel at this kingdom's A&S event in Windkeep this past month. And to Lord John Angus Swinford, who was given his Argent Heart for showing his skills off the field of battle and in the ways of the arts. Congratulations to you all.

This last month we moved our fighter practice to a new site and the numbers that have attended have been outstanding! Caerthe, we have a strong fighting back bone. Let us continue in getting the populace more involved so that we can grow to a new level within this great kingdom, and show that we are a barony that needs no others to stand for us!

That's if any others dare to challenge our borders. We've traveled to the barony of Unser Haven and fielded nearly 20 fighters, that was more then that barony could muster in their own home. This month I plan to travel to the barony of Dragonspine and test their borders with a new strength that they have never seen from this barony! Let us go down there and show them what's what.

The coronation of this kingdom's heirs is coming near. I hope to see one and all gather and revel in the excitement of having a new King and Queen. Their Majesties Martino and Aindrea will live long in our dreams. As they step down, let us remember them with the fondest of memories. As a reminder...please bring any banners of your own devices or of your households. Let us stand and show our colors to the rest of the kingdom at Coronation.

As the camping season draws near, let usage to our dark storage dwellings and dust off the goods and make sure that all is in good repair. The Canton of Hawk's Hollow will be hosting Crossroads this year, and I hope to see all who aren't attending Grand Outlandish, to stand by my side as I will be attending as well. With the most joyous of times as we are able to set around and tell stories of old and new to one and another.

I tip my coronet, to everyone for all their hard work and dedication.

Sir Maelgun McCain
Baron of Caerthe

From the Seneschal

Unto to grand and wondrous populace of Caerthe, do I send my final and bittersweet greetings. I do wish I had some eloquent and glorious parting words, but alas, I do not. I can only repeat my gratitude for this opportunity to serve you, and again thank all of you, to numerous to name, who were my support and counsel. Mistress Meg, I wish you all the best in this endeavor for which you are more than capable. Imagine, me, almost speechless! To THLord Roland, I want to thank you most of all. You inspired and challenged me and that has made me a better populace member and more importantly, a better person. To THLady Taryn, THLady Caterina, THLady Orlafthia, Lady Ketura, Lady Killian, Lady Adelicia, Lady Maire, Lady Yuki, Lady Constance, Mary, His Excellency Tule, THLord Roland, Lord Robert Marchet, Lord Padriac, Lord Talyn, Lord Eoin, and Lord John; it is not only that without you I would not have been able to do my "job", I would have no reason to continue to play. You have been the heart and soul of my dream and I can not thank you enough. To Lord Ivan and MacKenna, you are me reasons for being. Thank you. Well, before I get to sentimental and on some sort of a tangent, you know how I am, I will just say, May you all live your dream as I have lived mine — with happiness, fun, and lots of laughter.

In service

Stasia

From the Canton Seneschal

Unto the populace does Lord Robert Marchet, Seneschal of the Canton of Hawks Hollow, send greetings. I write this month to announce I will be stepping down as the Canton's Seneschal on Memorial day weekend at the Canton's "Crossroads" event. I have greatly enjoyed my term as Seneschal and it is with much sadness I step down. I feel we have accomplished the goals we set when I became Seneschal and the demands of my mundane life have become such that I can no longer devote the time to the Canton that it deserves. I will be continuing on as a "drop dead" deputy to my successor, Lady Tetsutaka Yukihana as well as the Canton's Chronicler/ Web Master. I want to add a special thank you to the Canton's officers. In my humble opinion they are the best officers in the Known World! Together we have fought some battles, slain some dragons and perhaps hatched an evil plot or two but most of all we have had lots of fun! Good luck to Lady Yukihana, if you only realized the fun and adventure of the journey you are embarking on.

Your humble servant,
Lord Robert Marchet
Seneschal of the Canton of Hawks Hollow

From the Knight Marshal

The Fighter Practice Site for the Barony of Caerthe has moved. We are now meeting at the US Army Reserve Center at the former Fitzsimmons Army Garrison. This site is indoor/outdoor with full amenities. It has a concrete floor. Smoking is permitted in the outdoor (uncovered) smoking area, the site is dry. Children must be supervised.

Directions: The site is located at the intersection of Colfax and I-225. Avoid the I-70/I-225 junction if you can as this is invariably backed up between 5:00pm and 6:30pm. From the intersection of Colfax and I-225, head West on Colfax to your first traffic light. This street is Potomac (the Fitzsimmons Park-n-Ride is located at this intersection). Turn right onto Potomac heading North. Take the second left into Fitzsimmons (the road is called Wheeler) and drive West, past the old gatehouse, to the first intersection. Turn left and head South. Take your second left into a fenced in parking lot and find a place to park. If you get to Fitzsimmons and get lost, simply follow the signs to the 'PX' (Post Exchange). The practice site is located to the South of the PX. If you need to ask for directions tell them you're looking for the "Army Reserve Center" over by the PX.

From the Chronicler

Greetings all once again. This month the main news is that, for various reasons I will be assuming the Deputy Webmaster position at least for the next few months. Mistress Caelainn has been assuming more of the regular Chronicler functions, which will give me more time to attend to the Webpage. Due to the very public nature of the Webpage, I would like to be able to personally mentor a new person to take over this important position.

From the A&S Officer

The A&S event scheduled for May 6th has been moved and will be combined with the A&S event in November. Circumstances arose that could not be overcome and still maintain the focus and needs the A&S event requires. My deepest thanks to THL Taryn for her cooperation in our attempts to maintain the spring event. Thanks also to THL Jorunn for her work for the event.

November 4th is date for the Caerthen Arts and Sciences Collegium and Competition. All categories will be judged at that event. The autocrat is Lady Gwenhevare. The chef is THL Gwen. The site will be Berkeley Community Church. Please begin preparation now for this event.

To those interested in metalsmithing:

Greetings unto the populace of Caerthe,

It has been declared that those of noble nature shall not only watch over and encourage the art's and sciences but that we shall share in our knowledge. I (Tiberious) am new to the area and would like to invite you all to study metalsmithing. I have designed and set up a workspace within which to foster, prepare and develop arts that we may share with others through collegium and competitions. While you may expect to deal with some minimal administrative work to study here I would like you all to come and see what you may study, learn, or just have some fun with. The studio is located near the old Stapleton Airport and I can be reached by calling (303) 394-3877 please call and set up a time to come by. I am not always home but I do return messages. UNIVERSITY OF CAERTHE

In May we will hear about one of the industries important in most societies, ancient and modern. Lady Richenda will tell us about "Wool: from Sheep to Loom". She has had actual experience working with sheep: lambing, shearing, dealing with the wool market, and will describe how it has evolved from Period times to today. There will be the opportunity for some hands-on experience spinning on a drop spindle with different wools, and cleaning the fleece in the washing machine or bathtub. As a reminder of just how important wool has been through history -- by tradition the Chief Justice of England presides sitting on a woolsack.

We will meet at 7:30 P.M., May 31, the fifth Wednesday of the month, at Salamander Manor, the home of Mistress Bernice of Brittany - 3495 Newland Street, Wheat Ridge. All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. For further information, call Lady Richenda, 303-455-6728, Mistress Bernice, 303-233-9558, or Master Robin Vinehall, 303-444-5004.

THE SITE FOR CORONATION HAS CHANGED! Please read the complete article below for important new information.

The Barony of Dragonsspine invites one and all to join us for the Coronation of Their Royal Highnesses Kynan and Eleanor on May 13th and 14th. The event will be held at the Colorado Lions Camp in the mountains west of Colorado Springs. The site is wet, and as always period containers should be used. We will be checking ID's at the gate and using different site tokens to help people who bring alcohol to follow the legal age limits. Smoking is allowed in the designated areas only. Pets are permitted as long as they are kept on leashes. The basic site fee will be $5, with children 6-11 half price, and under 6 free.

The schedule for the event (subject to change) is:

Saturday:

9:00 AM - site opens

10:00 AM - coronation court

12:30 PM - lists open

1:00 PM - The Protector of the Queen's Heart Tournament

3:00 PM - Queen's Champion Tournament

6:00 PM - Evening court

7:00 PM - Feast begins

8:30 PM - Feast ends, revels begin

11:30 PM - Hall cleanup (we don't have to chase everyone out, but we do have to clean it before the morning)

Sunday:

9:00 AM - Peer's circles and Order of the White Scarf meetings (order To Be Determined)

10:00 AM - Lists open

11:00 AM - Heavy weapons fundraising tournament

1:30 PM - Rapier fundraising tournament

6:00 PM - site closes

The heavy weapons fundraising tournament on Sunday will be a "musical chairs" tournament. A donation of $5 is suggested for entrants. Prizes for the tournament will be fine articles of clothing donated by the tailors and seamstresses of our fine kingdom (if you wish to donate to the tournament, please contact the autocrat - simple T-tunics or loose pants are great, or promissory notes for the same). The winner of the tournament gets first pick of the prizes, the second place finisher get second pick, and so on. Proceeds go the Kingdom general fund.

The rapier fundraising tournament will require all entrants to bring a garland, wreath, or similar token of spring. We will auction off the these tokens, along with the right to be championed by the entrants, to the lords and ladies watching the tournament. Prizes will be awarded to the winning combatant and the person for whom they fought this day. Another prize will be awarded for the best praise of the person for whom you fight, either in song, poetry, or prose. Again, proceeds go the Kingdom general fund.

This site offers many amenities, including camping space (with hot showers), bunk rooms, and some small private rooms. If you wish to camp, there will be an additional fee of $3 per person (children under 6 free). There is no limit on the number of campers we can have. Please be aware that the early May nights in the mountains can be quite cold, with temperatures around freezing. If you wish to camp, please bring warm bedding and clothing.

The site offers two heated dormitories, each with 24 bunks divided into two levels with bathrooms. One dorm building will be reserved for families only, and will be considered a "quiet" area after 10:00 PM Saturday. The other dorm will be divided into a single men's floor and a single women's floor (due to site restrictions) and will not have quiet hours. The fee for dorm space is $7.50 per person (again, children under 6 free). We are taking waiting list reservations for a limited number of small private rooms. Each room contains two twin beds and a private bath, but is otherwise very small (these are rooms used by camp counselors during the summer, and realistically don't even have enough empty floor space for another adult). The fee for a private room is $22 per person for the event (maximum of $44 per room). If you would like to stay in one of these rooms, please get your name on the waiting list with the reservations coordinator. Although none are known to be available right now, you will be informed by April 20th if space opens up. Finally, there are several nice hotels and "resort cabins" within 5 miles of the site. Please contact the reservations coordinator for more information on what's in the area.

If you wish to spend the night at the event, we request that you make reservations as soon as possible (even if you are only camping). Space in the dorms and private rooms is on a first come, first serve basis. Reservations for the private rooms and dorms must be paid by May 5th, or your space will be given to people on the waiting list. Currently the site is not available for camping or staying there Friday night, but this might change if we get enough people who wish to commit to coming up (and paying an additional night fee) on Friday. If you would like to be at the site Friday night, please let the reservation coordinator know. If you have any questions regarding the site or accommodations please contact the autocrat.

We offer you two options for a most wonderful repast in the evening. You may choose to partake of all the delicacies our fine cooks can prepare, or you may choose to eat of a simpler but equally fine meal. Fees for the complete feast are $9 per adult through April 25th, or $11 per adult thereafter. Fees for the feast of simpler fare are $5 before April 25th, or $6 thereafter. Children 6-11 are once again half price, and below 6 eat for free. The tentative menu is as follows, subject to change:

Simple fare First Course: bread, fruit, cheese, lamb stew
Second Course: roast chicken with must sauce, pasta with butter and cheese, salad
Third course: a beef dish. rice or millet in almond milk. brussel sprouts in vinaigrette
Dessert Sideboard
Full feast adds to the Simple fare: olives, silvered almonds, marinated mushrooms mushroom pate, sausage stuffing for the chicken, Norse tarts, asparagus

Please send all reservations to the address listed below. If you are arriving Friday night we encourage you to contact the reservations coordinator for information about crash space or hotels in the area. Come join us for a wonderful time as we welcome the 29th Crown of the glorious Outlands!

Directions: From I-25 in Colorado Springs take US 24 West (Exit 141) towards Pikes Peak and Manitou Springs. Go up 24 to Woodland Park (about 23 miles from I-25). Once you enter Woodland Park go through 4 stop lights. Turn right at the fifth stop light, US 67 North. Proceed for four miles and you will see a large yellow sign on the left pointing towards to the camp. Turn left at the sign, and the camp is about a mile back on the dirt road.

Autocrat: The Honorable Lord Alwyn of Kittisford (Ted Monogue), 3640 Arborview Ct. Colorado Springs, CO 80918, (719) 532-1686, Alwyn@rialto.org

Greetings from Kragon and Sarah, Baron and Baroness of al-Barran, unto the Kingdom and Known World. Please come and enjoy the hospitality and friendship that we extend at our Barony's 27th Grand Outlandish. Many have toiled in years past and present to establish and provide a wondrous event with many and diverse offerings. We look forward to seeing many new faces, those who have generously traveled and those close at hand. We have the Lord of Outlandish Tournament scheduled for Friday afternoon, come and display your honor. There are many other tournaments for Heavy Weapons, Rapier Fighting and Archery throughout the weekend. Wake up and Melee every day until you drop. Visit the A&S pavilion and attend classes and view displays. Revel, sing, dance and visit at the many parties and activities in the Town Hall. All scheduled activities will be posted at the Gate and heralded throughout the camp. So, Pre-register and come early. To all of our friends old and new, Welcome!

Policies: As always, we will strive to make the event and the atmosphere as medieval as possible. All vehicles need to be off-site as soon as they are unloaded. There will be a vehicle free period during the weekend as usual. We have outlandish weather, so be prepared for...anything! As of now, aboveground fires are permitted, and every camp with a fire MUST have an extinguisher. We have had a very dry winter, so be prepared. Pets are welcome, but must be on a leash.

All those who wish to attend who are not SCA members at the time of Grand Outlandish READ HERE! We once again will not have an added charge for non-members, as we wish all who are interested in the current middle ages to be encouraged to do so. We do ask, however, that a member of the SCA sponsor all non-members. The non-member will need the SCA and mundane name as well as the membership number of the sponsor to gain entrance at the Gate. If any questions arise the sponsor will be asked to provide witness, so all sponsors plan on meeting your party at the gate! Sponsors are responsible for ensuring the appropriate garb and conduct during the weekend and helping their friends to explore the fun and splendor of the Middle Ages. This policy is not set to oppress any who wish to come and learn about and enjoy the SCA, it is in place purely to ensure that those who are new to the society have some guidance and information to help them and all of us enjoy the weekend.

Directions: From I-40 (about 25 miles east of Alb) take the Tijeras Exit (hwy 14) south until it ends at NM 55. Go West (R) on NM55 to the town of Manzano, NM.
